

NIC commends our nation's legislators on both sides of the aisle, our public servants and first responders for their bravery and fortitude yesterday in standing up to the terroristic activities and performing their Constitutional duty to confirm Joe Biden and Kamala Harris as our next President and Vice President of the United States.

Since 1992, NIC has proudly stood by our government partners and legislators as they serve the citizens of this great nation. Our sincere hope is that our Country will come together to ensure peace, equality and justice throughout the New Year.
